

SUMMARY OF DUII DIVERSION FEES

You are required to pay the fees listed below to participate in a DUII diversion program

Section 1: Payment to the Court

A. Court Fees

The court may waive all or part of these fees if it finds that you are low-income. The court may also allow you to pay in installments over time.

- $490 filing fee
- Court-appointed attorney fees

B. Restitution

The court may order restitution in cases where a victim suffered economic damages. After the end of the diversion period, you must continue making payments if you have not paid the full amount of restitution. The court cannot terminate a diversion agreement for failure to pay restitution if you have otherwise complied with and performed all of the conditions of the diversion agreement.

Section 2: Other Fees

C. Alcohol and drug abuse assessment and treatment

- You must pay $150 directly to the agency or organization doing the assessment
- You must pay for any treatment recommended by the assessment or ordered by the court. The cost of treatment varies. You must pay treatment costs directly to the agency or organization providing the treatment. If you are unable to pay, the provider may allow payment in installments over time.

D. Victim Impact Panel

The court may order you to attend a Victim Impact Panel and pay a participation fee. The fee can range from $5 to $50. You must pay this fee directly to the panel coordinator on the day of the panel.

E. Ignition Interlock Device

The court may order you to install and use an approved ignition interlock device in any vehicle you operate during the term of the diversion agreement when you have driving privileges. You must pay the cost of installing, leasing, and maintaining the device to the provider of the device. The Department of Transportation may waive or defer (postpone) all or part of these fees if the Department finds you are low-income. The Department may also allow payment to be made in installments over time.
